

CASA SUNSET

Casa Sunset is a lovely Mexican contemporary style home located in the Los Frailes neighborhood of San Miguel de Allende. This three bedroom three and a half bath house was built with the finest materials including cantera walls, wood floors, and marble in the bathrooms. The kitchen boasts high-end appliances, granite counters and an open design to the living room for easy entertaining. The living room features a soaring double height ceiling and wood burning fireplace. The living room opens to a formal dining room with lovely garden views. An additional attractive feature of this home is the ground floor master suite.

Upon entering the front gates of casa Sunset you'll find parking for one car and a beautifully landscaped garden with mature trees. You will instantly be struck by the juxtaposition of building materials including stone and exposed brick, and the lovely alignment of entryways to carry your view forward from space to space. The main entrance to the home features an elegant Namuh door made of thick boards and traditional hardware which is an example of the quality details to be found throughout this house.
